CHRIS DIMARCO

■ Age: 36.

■ Home: Orlando, Fla.

■ Turned pro/joined PGA Tour: 1990/1994

■ PGA Tour/all victories: 3/3

■ World ranking: No. 17

■ Previous Ryder Cups: 0 ■ Notable: Another Nationwide Tour graduate, he is best known for his unusual "claw" grip on a standard-sized putter. DiMarco bounced tours before landing on the PGA Tour for good in 1998, and won for the first time in 2000. He clinched a Ryder Cup berth by posting top-10 finishes in three majors this year, including a tie for 2nd after losing in a playoff at the PGA bids to earn PGA Tour playing status, then joined club pro ranks after suffering a torn rotator cuff in mid-1980s. Finally qualified for tour in 1988 and posted five wins from 1992-first Ryder Cup berth.

■ Home: Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. ■ Turned pro/joined PGA Tour:

1992/1994. ■ PGA Tour/all victories: 9/10

■ Notable: Furyk is known for his distinctive swing and for being a topshelf putter. A three-time member of the U.S. Presidents Cup team, Furyk won twice last year, including his first major championship at the U.S. Open, but was sidelined for almost five months earlier this year by torn cartilage in his left wrist. He returned to action mid-June and has a pair of top-10 finishes. His singles win over Sergio Garcia in 1999 was a key to U.S. rally at Brookline.

■ Age: 50 ■ Home: Greenville, S.C.

■ Turned pro/joined PGA Tour: 1976/1977

■ PGA Tour/all victories: 9/10

■ World ranking: No. 23 ■ Previous Ryder Cups: 2 - 1983.

■ Rvder Cup 3-4-1 · 0-2 singles, 1-2 2-0-1 foursomes, four-balls. ■ Notable: A captain's pick, Haas will be the secondoldest player ever to compete in the matches; Raymond Floyd of U.S. was 51 in 1993. Haas' last tour victory came in 1993, but he has seven top-10 finishes this year. He remained a full-time competitor on PGA Tour this year despite being eligible, age-wise, for the Champions Tour. He did play in two senior majors, finishing second at Senior PGA and tied for third at U.S. Senior Open.

DAVIS LOVE III

■ Age: 40. ■ Home: Sea Island, Ga.

■ Turned pro/joined PGA Tour: 1985/1986

posted seven top-10 finishes this year, including the Masters and British Open, and lost to Tiger Woods in finals of WGC Accenture Match Play Champion ship. He has also appeared on five U.S. Presidents Cup teams.

PHIL MICKELSON

■ Age: 34

■ Home: Rancho Santa Fe, Calif. ■ Turned pro/joined PGA Tour:

four-balls. ■ Notable: The lefty won two NCAA titles, a U.S. Amateur championship and a pro tournament while still an amateur. As a professional he was best known for a number of close calls at majors before finally breaking through at this year's Masters After a sub-par 2003 season, which saw him show up for a pitching tryout with the Mud Hens, Mickelson underwent an off-season swing change under the tutelage of Sylvania resident Rick Smith and has had a spectacular 2004, with a second-place finish at U.S. Open, a third at the British Open and a tie for 6th at

PGA to go along with Masters win. KENNY PERRY

■ Age: 44

■ Home: Franklin, Ky.

■ Turned pro/ ioined PGA Tour: 1982/1987.

■ PGA Tour/all victories: 7/7

■ World ranking: No. 16 ■ Previous Ry-

der Cups: 0

Notable: Always among the steadiest players, Perry broke through in 2003 at age 43 to produce his best season as a professional. He won three times, including the Memorial Tournament, and had seven top-five finishes and 11 top-10s. He won nearly $4.5 million, a career best, and gobbled up Ryder Cup points. Has cooled off a bit this year, but still has seven top-10 finishes

CHRIS RILEY

■ Age: 30 ■ Home: Las

Vegas ■ Turned pro/ ioined PGA Tour:

1996/1999 ■ PGA Tour/all victories: 1/1

■ World ranking: No. 40 ■ Previous Ryder Cups: 0 Notable: Maybe the least known of the U.S.

members Riley has won just once, at the 2002 Reno-Tahoe Open. But he had a quietly successful 2003 season with seven top finishes, several coming at big events like the Tour Championship, WGC-NEC Invitational and Mercedes Championship. A fourth-place tie at the recent PGA Championship put him over the top in his Ryder Cup bid, placing him 10th on the final points list, good for the last automatic berth.

DAVID TOMS ■ Age: 37

■ Home: Shreveport, La.

■ Turned pro/joined PGA Tour:

■ PGA Tour/all victories: 10/11

■ World ranking: No. 22

Previous

Ryder Cups: - 2002 ■ Ryder Cup records: - 1-0 singles, 1-0-

1 foursomes, 2-1-0 four-balls. ■ Notable: It certainly wasn't Toms' fault the U.S. lost at the Belfry in 2002. He scored almost one-third of the team's 121/2 total points and won his head-to-head singles match with Sergio

Garcia, 1-up. The winner of the 2001 PGA Championship, Toms has won at least one tour event in five of the last six years. His 2004 win came at the FedEx St. Jude Classic. He added top-20 finishes at the U.S. Open and PGA.

TIGER WOODS

foursomes. 2-4-0 four-balls. ■ Notable: He has won virtually every significant junior, amateur and professional championship, yet has only a so-so record in team competitions. Woods has an 8-7 overall record in Presidents Cup play to go with his 5-8-2 Ryder Cup record. After five wins in 2003, he has posted just one victory thus far in 2004, and has gone 10 majors without a win. So perhaps the gap at the top is narrowing. He recently lost his No. 1 world ranking to Vijay Singh after holding it for 264 consecutive weeks.
