A series of gables and arches create a lovely and harmonious exterior.

This home features living space on one level, plus a full, unfinished basement. A central foyer routes traffic efficiently to the sleeping, formal, and informal zones of the house. Note the sliding glass doors that provide access to outdoor living facilities. A built-in china cabinet and planter unit are fine décor features.

In the angular kitchen, a high ceiling and efficient work design set the pace. Seating at the island makes this a convenient place for a casual meal, or for guests to keep you company as you cook.

The kitchen opens to the conversation room, which may act as a multipurpose space for relaxing by the fireplace, watching TV (in addition to the media room), or enjoying the views outside.

On the opposite, private side of the home, sleeping quarters take off in the spacious master suite, with a tray ceiling and sliding doors to the rear yard. A magnificent bathroom includes a curving, glass-block shower and a garden whirlpool tub. Dual vanities and walk-in closets complete this luxurious haven. Two additional bedrooms and a full bath accommodate family members or guests.
