Layered look

Whether you're dressing up for a night out or down for a casual get-together, layering necklaces is a fun way to complete an outfit. A layered necklace that's all in one piece—like this one from Charming Charlie—is a great gift for someone looking for a go-to piece for any mood. Prices vary. Franklin Park Mall, 5001 Monroe St.

Styles for men

When shopping for jewelry, don't forget that men like to accessorize, too. These stackable bracelets come in leather and sterling silver and are a best-seller at Macy's. From $150-$800, Franklin Park Mall store, 5001 Monroe St.

School spirit

Eli Antypas Jewelers offers custom jewelry design, engraving, and repairs. But one of their more unique offerings may be perfect for the high school student on your gift list. The jeweler makes custom beads and pendants with school colors, initials, or mascots. The St. Francis de Sales School beads are pictured here. Prices start at $75 for a bracelet. 5300 Monroe St.

For Momma Bear

These hand-stamped necklaces are a great fit for the proud moms in your life. They're personal, with the number of bears on display corresponding to the number of children she looks after every day. Select the bar or square shape, depending on her style. $29. RooBarb Studios, 622 S. Main St., Findlay.

Earrings

Dangle earrings add flair to any outfit. A pair can dress up a business casual outfit or finish your look for a black-tie affair. The 18k gold oval with diamonds is $5,395 and the gold nugget with black diamonds is $1,125. Find them at Harold Jaffe Jewelers, 4211 Talmadge Rd.

Romance

This holiday, shower that special someone with adoration with a heart-inspired piece. This ring is elegant, with a pretty pop of color. $90. J. Foster Jewelers at Fallen Timbers, 3100 Main St., Maumee, or at Franklin Park Mall, 5001 Monroe St.

Lovely literature

Pretty Bookish jewelry is great for the friend or relative whose nose is always in a book. Pick out an already made piece, like this $16 "Romeo and Juliet" ring, or request a custom piece with their favorite passage. Various prices, online at etsy.com/shop/PrettyBookish.

Timeless timepiece

Looking for a gift for someone who's tough to buy for? Watches are a fashionable, useful item that can fit anyone's style. Select a Fitbit for an athlete, an Apple Watch for a techie, or a fancy timepiece—like this $1,595 leather and diamond piece from JCPenney—for a businessman. Franklin Park Mall, 5001 Monroe St.

An artsy accessory

Have you ever admired a piece of artwork in a gallery so much you wish you could wear it? The Museum Store at the Toledo Museum of Art lets you come pretty close with its contemporary jewelry by Mexican-born artist Gabriel Dawe that mirrors his stunning textile installations. $235. Toledo Museum of Art Store, 2445 Monroe St.

Gemstones

If you're looking to splurge on someone this holiday season, diamonds are always a safe bet. Or try adding another stone to the mix, like these sapphire and diamond stud earrings for $1,975 from Jeffrey Mann Fine Jewelers, 5247 Monroe St.
