Sketches of girl's assailants released

Toledo police yesterday released sketches of the males involved in the sexual and physical assault last week of a 16-year-old girl at Highland Park in South Toledo.

The girl was approached as she was putting air into a tire on her vehicle at South Avenue and Spencer Street about 7 a.m. Feb. 22. The pair asked her for a cigarette and a ride, both of which she refused, police said.

One threatened to harm her and forced her to drive to an abandoned building at Spencer and Western Avenue. He demanded money, but she didn't have any. He took her cell phone and forced her to drive to the park at South and Champion Street, where she was sexually assaulted, police said. A black handgun was brandished. The males fled on foot with the teen's car keys and driver's license. A passer-by helped the girl, who was treated at Toledo Hospital.

One suspect was described as 5 feet, 7 inches tall with a thin build and brown eyes. His bottom teeth were crooked.

He wore a black baseball cap turned to the right, a light blue, hooded jacket with multicolored print, and black pants with yellow straps at the knee and ankle and the insignia "M+FG."

The second was described as 5 feet, 7 inches tall with light-colored eyes. He was wearing a red baseball cap turned to the right, a tan "bubble-style" jacket, blue jeans with orange straps and the "M+FG" insignia, police said.

Anyone with information is asked to call Crime Stopper.

He fled on foot through the nearby Fountain Square apartment complex.

The man was described as tall, thin, possibly in his 30s or 40s, and wearing black shoes; blue, work-style pants; a blue, zip-up, hooded jacket; gray leather gloves, and a gray ski mask.
